AFRICA
Celebration and launch of the International Prisoners’ Justice Day in Kenya
OIJJ
The International Prisoners’ Justice Day was today celebrated for the first time in Kenya, and in Africa. The celebration and launch were held at the Nairobi Remand and Allocation Prison, which hosts prisoners awaiting trial. The theme of this celebration has been "Restoring Prisoners to Themselves, Their Families and the Community". Social reintegration of prisoners in their communities and families is one of the priorities of the Kenya government, as well as one of the crucial areas of intervention of the project 'Stop Human Rights Violation within detention facilities in Kenya', to which the IJJO is partner.
