TURKEY
Dr. Füsun Sokullu-Akinci. Director of the Research Center of Criminal Law and Criminology at the Law Faculty of Istanbul University. Turkey
Dr. Füsun Sokullu-Akinci analyses and explains the situation of minor offenders in Turkey and the progresses in the field of child protection regarding the Child protection Law of 2005 from an academic perspective.

On the other hand, there is the obvious need to develop an integrated legal context that includes the necessary modifications according to our main activities and objectives, the International Juvenile Justice Observatory wants to give the opportunity to researchers and PhD Students to have access to our international communication platform.

To publish on our web site your thesis, research papers regarding juvenile justice and the situation of favoring an integral and positive development and evolution of minors in Turkey.

In accordance with the research done by Anton Van Kalmthout of the University of Tilburg (the Netherlands) about the application modalities of the pretrial detention measures and the bases for the Common European Regulations, emphasis is put on the fact that, in a lot of countries the pretrial detention of minors is done in worse conditions than that of adults. There is a need to develop minimum standards to protect the rights and the welfare of minors in pretrial detention, both concerning the maximum duration as the educational programmes, etc.

Which good practices and strategies should be developed for minors in provisional arrest?
