

My name is Nikolaos Stamatakis and I have recently completed my Ph.D. at Panteion University of Social & Political Sciences, Athens - Department of Sociology. I also hold a Research LL.M. (NUIreland) and a M.A. in European Criminology (KULeuven).

I am currently working as a post-doctoral researcher at the University of Central Lancashire (UCLan) - Centre for Professional Ethics in the ESRC funded Knowledge Transfer Research project: "Evaluating and Supporting the Reduction of Offending through Public value Partnership". The present study will provide for the embedding of a Knowledge Transfer Broker within the National Probation Service (Cumbria-UK). In continue, the National Transfer Broker will facilitate the development of tools and training for deployment within the National Probation Service and relevant partner organisations from the public and private sector.
