EUROPE

A review of the UK justice system highlights bias against children of ethnic minorities

IJJO

The recently published Lammy Review, chaired by Member of Parliament (MP) David Lammy, highlights the bias against people from ethnic minority backgrounds in the UK justice system as a whole, and emphasises the youth justice system as Mr Lammy's greatest concern. This is due to the fact that, although there has been a notable fall in youth offending over the past decade, the share of young... [+]
