EUROPEAN UNION

The Guidelines on child-friendly justice have been adopted

IJJO

The Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe has adopted the Guidelines on child-friendly justice, right before the Universal Children's Day, November 20. This text aims to assist the Council's 47 Member countries when adapting their justice systems to the specific needs of children, in order to facilitate the access of minors to civil, administrative or criminal justice. The aim of the legislative file is to offer the IJJO Users all national legislations on minors in an ordered and organised way, including all laws in force, the partial reform laws as well as other laws regarding the protection of the rights of the child. [\[+\]](#)

IJJO INTERVIEWS

ITALY

Dr. Alessandro Padovani. Director. Istituto Don Calabria. Italy.

 Dr. Padovani analyzes what is the current situation of children and young people in Italy. Indeed, in the context of the socio-economic situation in Italy, he reports the influence of the ongoing economic crisis in order to provide enough resources for the integration of young offenders.

Finally, he considers the importance of a multidisciplinary intervention approach which can create a better intervention and good praxis for children in conflict with the law. [\[+\]](#)
