UNICEF Report. The State of the World's Children 2012: Children in an Urban World'

IJJO

According to the UNICEF Executive Director, 'When many of us think of the world's poorest children, the image that comes readily to mind is that of a child going hungry in a remote rural community in sub-Saharan Africa – as so many are today. Nevertheless, the UNICEF latest report 'The State of the World's Children 2012: Children in an Urban World' shows that millions of children in cities and towns all over the world are also at risk of being left behind'. EUROPEAN UNION

The IJJO participated and brought out the Mental Health and Young Offenders (MHYO) subject in the 3rd EFCAP Congress in Berlin

IJJO

By making the voice of professionals, experts and stakeholders on young offenders with mental health issues echo in the international agenda, the IJJO promotes and develops several advocacy activities to further bring this subject out which requires a holistic and integrated approach to ensure consistent and continuing care and treatment. EUROPE

Council of Europe Strategy for the Rights of the Child (2012-2015)

IJJO

The International Juvenile Justice Observatory welcomes the Council of Europe Strategy for the Rights of the Child (2012-2015), which has been adopted by the Committee of Ministers last February. The IJJO has been participating in the consultation process to draft the Strategy since the beginning, in 2006, when the Council of Europe launched the transversal programme "Building a Europe for and with Children". The Fifth IJJO International Conference, Criminality or Social Exclusion? Justice for Children in a Divided World, aims to address the impact of the global crises on the administration of justice for children and young people. In the last years, as a result of social and economic polarisation and global crises, growing numbers of children, young people and families are finding themselves at the margins of society where social exclusion and involvement in criminality might constitute a higher risk.

HUNGARY

The aim of the legislative file is to provide IJJO Users with access to national legislation on minors in an ordered and organised way, including all laws in force, partial reforms and other laws regarding the protection of the rights of the child. [\[+\]](#)
