Towards Eliminating Gender Disparity in Education

OIJJ

According to data produced by the UNESCO Institute for Statistics (UIS), 35 million girls of primary school age and 37 million girls of lower secondary school age were not enrolled in school in 2009. In general, girls are less likely to attend school and most important determinants to access to education are household well-being and geographic location. [\[+\]](#)

IJJO INTERVIEWS

UNITED KINGDOM

Ms. Frances Cook - Chief Executive

RESEARCH AND THESIS

INTERNATIONAL

Ms. Frances Cook, Chief Executive of the Howard League for Penal Reform, United Kingdom.

Ms. Cook introduces us in the penal English system where children are submitted to hard conditions in custody. She dismantles us a very authoritarian and punishable model that doesn't contemplate the psychological, social and educative children specific needs for that the disturbing self-injuring, death and recidivism data in custody reduce. She also advocates the reduction of the age in which it is criminally liable from 10 to 14 years old and remembers us that the Convention of the UN says that custody should only be used for the shortest possible time.
