

TRAINING METHODOLOGY - AFTERNOON SESSIONS

Geeta Sekhon

Dr.

A photograph of a mountain range with a lake in the foreground, used as a background for a quote. The mountains are dark and jagged, and the lake is calm, reflecting the sky. The sky is a pale, hazy blue. The overall tone is serene and contemplative.

“The real voyage of discovery consists not in seeking new landscapes, but in having new eyes.”

Marcel Proust

PRINCIPLES OF ADULT LEARNING

- ◆ Self-directed learning
- ◆ Problem solving and solution - oriented
- ◆ Purposive and application - oriented
- ◆ Platform to share personal and professional experiences
- ◆ Practical rather than theoretical

PEDAGOGY OF TRAINING

- ◆ Lectures
- ◆ Power - Point presentations
- ◆ Facilitated group and panel discussions
- ◆ Experience sharing
- ◆ Role-play
- ◆ Energizers / games
- ◆ Audio - visual

APCJJ ACTION LINES

- ◆ Promote sustainable collaboration and coordination ... in the development of juvenile justice policies;
- ◆ Develop strategies ... respect for the rights of children ... to promote crime prevention policies;
- ◆ Exchange practices and programmes;
- ◆ Advocate international and regional institutions.

BUILDING ON THE RESULTS OF THE APCJJ 1ST MEETING

💧 Prevention

💧 Administration of Juvenile Justice

- Diversion
- Restorative Justice
- Probation and leading community-based sentencing practices

💧 Policy and Legislative Reform

- Emphasize emerging UN guidance in new reform areas

💧 Rehabilitation and Reintegration

💧 Advocacy

OBJECTIVES OF THE 2nd APCJJ

- ◆ Promote the sharing of experiences and knowledge
- ◆ Identify practical measures for juvenile justice reforms
- ◆ Build on the results of the APCJJ First Meeting
- ◆ Evidence-based assessment of good practices
- ◆ Challenges faced by countries + Solutions to overcome them